

Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Sunday 13 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:

Warm, dry and sunny. Cloud building in west later.

Today:

A warm to hot day with plenty of sunshine, this most prolonged during morning. Highest temperatures in far east. Cloud increasing late afternoon, bringing risk of some patchy light rain to Moray and western areas of Aberdeenshire towards early evening. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:

Rather cloudy evening with some patchy light rain. This passes to the east towards dawn, as clear spells and a few isolated light showers follow from the west. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Monday:

A much fresher day with temperatures well down from Sunday. Most parts in east and south will stay dry, but some light showers will be brought on fresh westerly winds. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:

Tuesday mainly dry and bright. Rain spreading to west late in day and overnight, before clearing eastwards Wednesday. Thereafter showers and brighter spells.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.